

MaxLite appoints Dennis Nolan as Chief Financial Officer

WEST CALDWELL, N.J. (July 7, 2021) – MaxLite, a leading global manufacturer of energy-efficient lighting solutions since 1993, today announced the appointment of Dennis Nolan as chief financial officer.

Nolan brings more than 20 years of experience in finance, operations and IT infrastructure to his new role at MaxLite. For the last five years, he was CFO of Ward Leonard, a leading manufacturer of motors, controls and power generation products.

“We are delighted to have Dennis join the MaxLite team,” said CEO and President Spencer Bolgard. “His experience, pragmatism and can-do attitude will strengthen our business processes and support our team in executing on our strategic business plan. Dennis is ideally suited to help lead MaxLite to continued growth and advance our mission of being easy to business with.”

Nolan previously held senior leadership positions at Unicorr Packaging Group, Numet Industries and Rockwood Service Corporation. He holds an MBA from the University of Minnesota.

“I’m looking forward to leading, learning from and complementing the terrific team at MaxLite,” Nolan said. “Despite the economic challenges presented by the COVID-19 pandemic, MaxLite has continued to launch innovative products such as c-Max Lighting Controls. I am excited to be joining the company during such an exciting period of innovation and growth.”
